Shri Vaishnav Vidyapeeth Vishwavidyalaya, Indore
Shri Vaishnav Institute of Information Technology

Date: 28/02/2026

Fortnightly Report of the Student/Intern

(To be maintained by the student)

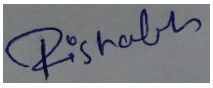
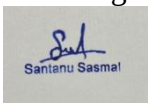
	Period	Date From	Date To
Mr. Santanu Sasmal Shntanu.ibmce@gmail.com	3	01/03/2026	14/03/2026

Overview	Callbacks and Promises are techniques used in JavaScript to handle asynchronous operations. A callback is a function passed to another function and executed after a task finishes, but excessive callbacks can lead to complex nested code called callback hell. A Promise is an object that represents the future result of an asynchronous operation and has states like pending, fulfilled, and rejected. Promises use .then() and .catch() methods for handling success and errors, making the code cleaner and easier to manage. They also support chaining and form the basis of modern async/await syntax.
Key Learning and Development Areas	• Understanding Asynchronous Programming – Learn how JavaScript handles non-blocking operations using callbacks and promises. • Callback Functions – Understand how functions can be passed as arguments and executed after a task completes. • Handling Callback Hell – Learn techniques to avoid deeply nested callbacks that reduce code readability. • Promise Methods – Learn to use .then(), .catch(), and .finally() for handling results and errors. • Promise Chaining – Understand how multiple asynchronous operations can be executed sequentially using chained promises. • Using Async/Await – Learn modern syntax built on promises to write asynchronous code in a simpler and more readable way
Ongoing Work	Currently working with the project on food ordering website frontend
Challenges	• Callback Hell – Excessive nesting of callbacks can make the code complex and hard to read or maintain. • Error Handling in Callbacks – Managing errors across multiple callbacks can be difficult and messy. • Understanding Asynchronous Flow – Beginners often find it hard to understand how asynchronous execution works in JavaScript.




Intern Signature | External Mentor Signature | Internal Mentor Signature